

Non-Contrast CT based Software for the detection of suspected hemorrhages

Heuron ICH

MFDS Class 3, Approval N° 22-36

Heuron ICH is a diagnosis supporting tool for quick detection of cerebral hemorrhages

- Detection and classification of suspected hemorrhagic stroke patients within 1 minute of image entry.
- Provides output and report on classification of suspected-hemorrhagic stroke patients.

The performance of Heuron ICH was verified through several clinical trials and evaluations

- Clinical trials have confirmed the high performance of cerebral hemorrhage classification.
  - Sensitivity 96.23%
  - Specificity 95.38%

Provides quick and accurate cerebral hemorrhage screening results to assist in the diagnosis of emergency patients with suspected strokes.